“ Bernie was the cousin we all looked up to, literally and figuratively! When I finally got into real estate 19 years ago, I remember Bernie and Pete saying "so, you finally got into the family business!" He was a great role model for the whole extended family.

“ We extend sincere sympathy to the Degnan family, and especially to Nellie, our dear daughter-in-law, on the recent and great loss of Bernard J. Degnan. Bern's obituary described him as we knew him: a kind, gentle, and loving husband, father, grandfather and brother, with a warm personality and many friends. Throughout a long and full life he contributed much, and favorably influenced many: he will be widely missed and long remembered. May happy memories be some partial consolation. With every good wish,
Joe and Shirley Earley, Falls Church, Virginia.

“ Bernie was a wonderful gentleman. We first met Bern and his lovely wife Helen at St. Anselm's Church in Ocean township, where he was involved and dedicated in service to the parish. Then we met up again with Bernie at the senior retirement community: the Villas at Jumping Brook in Neptune; he was one of the very first people who welcomed us, and he was a sight for sore eyes. Many times we spotted Bern on his daily runs around the complex there, and he was in terrific shape. Then we moved to Seabrook Village, and there was Bernie once again...along with his devoted wife Helen. In all of our interactions with Bernie over many different years and settings and circumstances, he displayed a gentleness, a warm sense of humor, and a concern for others. We ask the family to accept our heartfelt condolences on the loss of such a good and kind man.
