Charlie was predeceased by his beloved parents, three sisters, three brothers, and his dear daughter, Nancy Booth. “ Dad was always kind to everyone, gentle spirited, and empathetic to others in pain. My Dad Charles was a wonderful loving father. Growing up he always worried about his children even as they were all grown up and on their own. I'd call Dad almost every day and blab on an on about my issues and stresses. He was always very concerned and tried to comfort me. He loved painting lighthouse or landscape pictures the "Bob Rossi" way. He loved his crazy cat Buddy who he used to play kick the ball with. He had his own vocabulary and ways of saying things only people that knew him personally would understand. There won't be a day in the rest of my life that I won't think about or miss him. I love you Dad. Have fun in heaven and be a good boy. I'll see you when it's my turn. Love forever, your baby girl Diana.
