“ Angela D Quamina lit a candle in memory of Dulce Maria Espaillat

“ It has been more than twenty years since my children and I left New Jersey and moved back home to Baltimore, Maryland...and since I last saw Dulce. But even so, I can still see her big beautiful smile and hear that distinctive laugh of hers. She had a sweet spirit.

I would like to leave these words, by one of my favorite intellectual writers, in Dulce's honor and for her three beautiful daughters, Marlene, Monica and Rosemary...

“The purpose of life is not to be happy. It is to be useful, to be honorable, to be compassionate, to have it make some difference that you have lived and lived well. “

Ralph Waldo Emerson

“To laugh often and much, to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children, to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure of the betrayal of false friends, to appreciate beauty, to find the best in others, to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child, a garden patch...to you know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded!

Ralph Waldo Emerson

Rest well in His loving arms dear Dulce, you have lived, lived well and succeeded!
Paz y que Dios te bendiga...

Lovingly submitted,
Angela Quamina and Family~
