“ Dear family of Ms Warde, please accept my deep sympathy on the loss of you dear sister and aunt. She was an inspiration to many for decades and I was privileged to benefit from her knowledge whilst attending MHS. It is as one bible writer wrote at Ecclesiastes 7:1 that the day of death is better than the day of one's birth. This has truly been the case of Ms. Warde. She has left a fine legacy. So please find comfort in knowing that she is resting in death awaiting God's call to a new life. Job 14:14, 15.

“ This evening I pause to give tribute to a brilliant and gifted music teacher, Ms. Florence Warde. She was so amazingly patient, giving and caring. Her love for music transcended generations; and even if you did not sit at the piano with her, you vicariously benefitted from her joy of teaching. The lessons my siblings and I learned from her have been instrumental in building our self-esteem, self-confidence and will power. When I think of her, I recall the great recitals, the beautiful sounds of music, friends, fun and laughter. May her Family be comforted by the beautiful memories they created and shared together. Gone way too soon...time to make some sweet sweet music up high! May she rest in peace!

“ I am so sorry to learn of the passing of Miss Warde. She was a brilliant music teacher and was a very important part of my childhood. Like so many other families, Miss Warde taught piano to my siblings and I. She was kind and cheerful and she made learning fun and easy.

May her family be comforted by the beautiful memories she shared with them and may they know that she touched the lives of many students from MHS.

May she rest in peace in the loving arms of the Lord.

“ I am so thankful that my brothers, sister and I were able to connect with Miss Ward about 3 or 4 years ago. Miss Ward was the best and very good music teacher. In college I took a music theory class and realized that I already knew and was familiar with the curriculum and that was because of the loving teachings of Miss Florence Ward. I am glad that I got the opportunity to thank her.
