“ My condolences on your loss. I met Jim at college in Ohio. He was always friendly and had a very positive attitude. Also, Jim was a very gifted athlete who love to compete on any field of play.

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to the entire Hurley family at this very sad time.

We first met Jim and Phyllis when the Hurley family joined our family for Nancy and John's wedding in 1985. Over the years, we have felt connected to all of you, through stories and photos of Nancy and John's vacations home, annual trips to the shore and family events. It was great to reconnect with you at Erin and Jameson's wedding two years ago. We still talk about your carefree attitude with losing your luggage and your enthusiasm for walking everywhere - even to the zoo!

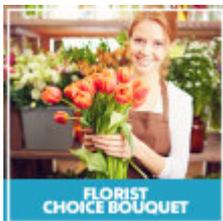

We are so sad for the loss of Jim and we will continue to keep you all in our prayers.

“ Jim was such a nice man. We live in Equestra and have only known Phyllis and Jim for a short time, but Jim always had a great smile on his face and kind words to share. Jim would walk past our house sometimes with his grandson, Joey, and he would stop to talk and pet our dog. We did enjoy a cocktail or two at the 9th Avenue Pier and a few Equestra functions, July 4th BBQ and the wine tasting. I know Jim will truly be missed by many people. Andy and I are very lucky to have had Jim in our lives. Our prayers are with his family.

“ As my older brother, Jim would take me out for a birthday dinner. As a kid, I loved this!
I ordered the same thing every time, spaghetti and meatballs. He always wanted me to order something different, but I never did.
My favorite meal today? Spaghetti and meatballs!

Rest in Peace, big brother...

I will love you forever..

“ Jim was a very good friend that we've known for 25 years. Based on our personal experiences we can say that he was a devoted husband, father and grandfather. We are going to miss the close relationship we had whether it be at dinner or pizza night with him and Phyllis, the two of us watching championship football, baseball, and basketball at the Fireside, or attending the annual Army football game. Jim was a great guy that loved his family and friends. We are going to miss him dearly. RIP. Phil & Jane Haderer
