

John Charles Hancock

June 1, 1952 - September 19, 2015

John (Jonathan) Charles Hancock, 63, of Tinton Falls, passed away on Saturday, September 19, 2015 at home. John was born in Bryan, Texas and is the son of Charles Kinney Hancock and Lena Dean Barrett of College Station, Texas, both deceased. He lived in Hillsborough (10 yrs) and Morristown (16 yrs) before becoming a resident of Tinton Falls earlier this year. John received his BA in applied piano from the University of Texas and was recently retired. His former occupations and accomplishments include; company pianist for choreographer Robert Joffrey; dance studio owner/operator with Marjorie Mussman; composer of modern dance scores; and rehearsal pianist for studios and universities including the Julliard School, Barnard College and the Joffrey Summer Workshops. Non-musical work includes: IT specialist with Johnson & Johnson; professional carpenter/woodworker; and licensed Realtor.

Surviving is his loving husband Kenneth Horn; his children, Austen Hagerup Hancock, Matthew Cole Horn and Helena Margaret Horn; his daughter-in-law Kelly Semegran Hancock; and his grandchildren, Austen Kenneth Hancock and Katelyn Elizabeth Hancock. A memorial service will be held at a time and place to be announced in the future. For online condolences and to check on future memorial services please visit John's memorial website at www.bongarzonefuneralhome.com.

Comments

“ this is for a soul that has stayed with me all these years. i went to school with john in texas. our fathers worked together.
he gave me the gift of flight. my memory is fuzzy, but while working on a school play, and goofing around between class,,he enticed me into a dance move. he swirled me around and lifted me onto his hip. and i flew.
thank you john. thank you.
betsy calaway murdoch

i was just searching online for you.... i'm glad i found you. rest....

betsy murdoch - July 17, 2016 at 08:02 PM