“ A very special, beautiful person. A gentle, passionate soul. Best shortstop on the planet.

Gone way too soon. RIP Phil.

There too many memories to pick one as we go back as 15 year old kids hanging at Clove Lakes park, playing pick up softball games, then going on to be part of one of the most competitive girls softball teams of our young lives. He was part of fantastic coaching team that helped a group of rag tag girls from the park play some pretty good ball! A lifelong friend, a coach, a fierce competitor a crazy Yankee fan, and part of a very spirited and fun family on Constant Ave.

I do have one memory, of Phil and his family, that always stayed with me through the years. My Mom was working and being Phil, he invited me to Sunday dinner with his fam, saving me from frozen mac n cheese. I can still see Mr. F. coming out of his kitchen, dishtowel slung over his shoulder, a mountain of simmering pots on the stove behind him, in the kitchen, everyone talking about different things, passing plates around, and him placing a tray of veal francese on the table. It was the absolute, bestest food I ever had! Phil made me feel like I was part of his family and Ill always remember his outgoing, open personality. He was an inspiration for all us given his unrelenting competitiveness in all he did, and the way he fought and conquered some of the toughest struggles of his way too short life. He will be missed dearly. Love ya Phil.

My deepest, heartfelt condolences to all of the Forlenza family.
