

Sebastian Sam Leone

December 1, 1951 - October 4, 2019

Sebastian (Sam) Leone, 67, of Eatontown NJ, passed away on Friday October 4, 2019 at home. He was born in Neptune, NJ and attended Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Catholic Church and School. He achieved a B.S. and an M.A. degree at Seton Hall University, South Orange, where he majored in French and Spanish Education and Modern Languages. Sam began his teaching career at Manasquan High School. He obtained supervisory certification and obtained a promotional position as supervisor of the foreign language department at Freehold Regional high School and Colts neck High School where he created the Specialized Learning Center. Sam chaperoned student tours to France and Mexico. He also organized and coordinated student exchanges with schools in France. In most recent years he worked for Monmouth University as supervisor of student teachers in World Languages.

During his 33-year career, Sam attended numerous universities during the summers including Millersville, PA; Universities of Montpellier and Grenoble, France; and Universities of Alicante and Santander, Spain. He was awarded by the Rotary International where he spent a summer program at the historic Chavaniac-Lafayette chateau in France with other professional instructors. Sam served as an executive board member of NJ's FLENJ. He also became very active with the regional and national foreign language teacher conferences where he occasionally gave presentations.

In 1984, he met Ed, his life-long partner of 35 years. They loved traveling together to Europe as well as exploring Canada, many regions of the U.S. and Hawaii. They were lovers of music and classic films. They lived the past 9 years in Tinton Falls and recently moved to Eatontown. They're members of St. Anselm Catholic Church. Sam suffered from a long illness and is survived by his spouse Ed Lamb.

Visitation will be from 4pm to 8pm on Wednesday October 9, 2019 and 10:45am to 11:30am on Thursday October 10, 2019 at the Bongarzone Funeral Home, 2400 Shafto Road, Tinton Falls. “ What a beautiful soul - I had the pleasure of being his student in French at MHS in the early '80s, and to this day I smile remembering "au Guignol" (puppet plays) and verbally stumbling through the items we were bringing on picnics... he sat through each and every student running through the litany of identical foods with his patience and good humor and quick, "Bon!" of encouragement. Rest peacefully.

To his friends and family - know that the ones we love, and are loved by, never leave us. Only the container changes.

“ Mr. Leone was such a great teacher. I had him for Spanish at Manasquan HS in the late 1970s. He was the teacher everyone wanted - he was cool and made learning fun. I always felt that I could talk to him if I had a problem, even if it wasn't Spanish related. I send my sincere sympathy to Ed. Peace.

“ Mr. Leone was my teacher at Manasquan High School in 1979. He was intelligent and kind, and I always looked forward to his class. With his encouragement, I went on to major in Special Education, and minor in Spanish. I have thought of him often through the years, and I always hoped I made my students feel as supported and confident as he made me feel in his classroom. My condolences to Ed, his family and friends.

“ I will always remember Sam as smart, kind, genuine, sincere and a wonderful colleague. I can still see him standing there with his hands in his pockets sharing his wisdom and always adding a little chuckle to whatever we were discussing, We were all blessed to have Sam in our lives... along with the countless number of student lives he touched. To Ed, his family and friends .. we all mourn the loss of Sam and pray he is at peace. May the memories bring you all peace and solace. Sending sincere condolences to you all.

“ I am so heartbroken by this turn of events. Too young to go. Sam, Terry, Norman and I loved our periodic lunches and dinners together, lately at MJ's, before he became ill. We remembered/shared our work experiences, travels, and after-retirement ventures to keep ourselves engaged in helping others in the field of education. When Sam was first at my school as a supervisor, I discovered that he had taught with my sister-in-law Kathy at Manasquan before she died of breast cancer in 1989. I bonded with Sam as this personal connection was so powerful between us. His speaking of her and her work there helped me grieve a bit with some comfort. And how we envied his annual vacations to Hawaii! I had been there twice, so it was easy to talk with him about the best sights and restaurants there. Sam and I could always find time for each other to resolve educational issues or talk over a new project. Finally, I was so pleased that my oldest son Chris had Sam for French! He has left us much too soon, but his impact and friendship will be always with us. I am so sorry for your loss. He was the best of educators and friend. --Lynnda Williams, Freehold Township High School, 32 years

“ Mr. Leone was my French teacher at Manasquan High School in 1978-1980. He tried to make learning fun. We played Mille Bornes to improve our comprehension and conversation skills. There have been a lot of fond memories of Mr. Leone shared today on various Manasquan High School Facebook groups. He will be missed.
