“ To The Family of Agnes Flanagan:

I am truly sorry for the loss of Agnes. I was so saddened to hear of her passing. I had the absolute honor and privilege to have known Agnes for almost 6 wonderful years. My Grandmother moved to Seabrook in June of 2011 and she was so proud to introduce me to Agnes. Agnes was an extremely active woman in the Seabrook Community. She used to help run the horse races in the main building of Seabrook by taking residents' bets and managing all the money that came across the desk. This event is where I met Agnes and she certainly did a fantastic job with helping run the horse races. Unfortunately, Agnes started to cut back on her activities because she felt that she was "getting too old" and she wanted to give someone else the opportunity to participate in running the horse races. Who do you think Agnes asked/recommend for her replacement to be? You guessed it, my Grandmother. My Grandma has been proudly running the horse races for a few years now and continues to do so today. She absolutely loves doing it and is showing no signs of slowing down - All thanks to Agnes. Agnes was a beautiful woman, who always had a nice smile and a kind word to say about everybody. She took excellent care of herself and was always elegantly put together - Even at the very end of her long life, she still managed to get her hair done. Agnes had a long beautiful life and lived her life to the fullest. Agnes was a pioneer resident of Seabrook and without a doubt was a vital part of the Seabrook Family/Community. She touched the hearts and lives of all who came in contact with her. I will certainly miss seeing her smile and the great conversations that we used to have. Seabrook will truly not be the same without Agnes, as the community lost a great resident/friend. My deepest thoughts, prayers, and condolences to Agnes' family and for all who mourn for her. Heaven gained a beautiful angel as we lost such a wonderful woman. Agnes, I know you are in a better place free from pain and suffering. Thank you for your friendship to both my Grandmother and myself. Rest in the sweetest peace Agnes and I look forward to being reunited with you one day.
