

Agnes Patricia Jones

May 15, 1938 - March 18, 2024

Agnes Patricia Jones was born at Riverview Medical Center in Red Bank, NJ to her loving mother and father Paul and Cleota Jones.

Agnes Patricia Jones who was lovingly called “Patty” by friends and family was truly an amazing woman. She was known for her fashion sense and her ability to light up a room with her cheerful laugh. She was a woman that took life by the horns and lived it fully. She has traveled the world and enjoyed her travels.

She was no stranger to working hard. She had a very full career life, bearing the title of head of housekeeping at the Molly Pitcher Inn of Red Bank, New Jersey. She comfortably settled into retirement after her time with Molly Pitcher.

Patricia was a devoted Christian and a faithful longtime member of First Baptist Church of Lincoln Garden in Somerset, New Jersey. She was preceded in passing by her mother Cleota, her father Paul and her daughter Charlene Dunn.

She is survived by Beverly Harris of Tinton Falls, Deborah Jones of Red Bank, Ronald Dunn of Tinton Falls and Pamela Ellison of Georgia. She leaves behind to carry on her legacy, her daughters Kathy Mountain of Bound Brook, Kim Reeves, Georgia, and Nicole Rogg-Brown who she lovingly raised as her own. Her grandchildren, Nichelle Mountain of Matawan, Cheryl Mountain of Ocean, Renee Mountain of Keansburg, Darius Dunn of California and Dimitro Dunn of California and a host of great grandchildren and great great grandchildren.

“ Ms. Pat I will miss you. Every time I would see you coming home on the bus you would greet me with a loving smile. We would talk and laugh until it was your stop to get off. Before you would get off the bus you would turn and wave goodbye with that beautiful smile of yours. I know you wanted me to remember you as you was and this memory I will cherish. Thank you for being the sweetest lady to me with no judgment. Love you sweet lady
