“ While going to school I worked summers with Amodio at HSC. We struck up a true friendship. Lucy, I was in your wedding party and shared meals and bocce games with the family in West Orange. To this day I can remember walking the cemetery roads with Amodio and singing "Volare" at the top of our lungs. Please accept my condolences on his passing.

“ I had the pleasure & privilege to be the neighbor Lucy & Amodio Grossi. As the years went by a beautiful friendship grew. I always felt like family when I was with them. I feel blessed to have known him. My heartfelt sympathy to Lucy, Gerri, Rose and family. I hope you find comfort in knowing that you are in the thoughts & prayers of so many people who love you and Amodio. He will live on in your hearts and in your memories.

Sending Love, Hugs & prayers from south Carolina.

“ I will always remember Amodio fondly. He planted every Cherry Blossom tree in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. He was a gentleman. May he rest in peace!

“ To all of your family, we send our deepest sympathy. We knew you as Herman and have wonderful memories of you next door at Rose and Mikes. May you now have peace and rest as the poem states "God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be...which proves God only takes the best". May you all find comfort from family, friends, and all your wonderful memories of a husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend, with all our love, stephanie and pat

“ As we say goodbye to our wonderful friend of so many years our condolences go out to Amodio's wonderful family. Although Amodio will be gone from us in whole he will always live on in our hearts and be by our side through the warm fond memories we will cherish as we live on. I will always feel blessed to have known such a warm and wonderful person that I call my friend. – Daniel & Sun Almaguer
