“ Honey,
I have 42 years of memories, but the biggest one is working in the nursing home together and watching you! The way you treated the patients there with such love and compassion as if they were your own parent, it was then that I fell in love with you and the rest became history! You always wore your heart on your sleeve! You projected such light! Your smile and laughter contagious. I will forever thank God for putting you in my path! Loving you was easy, letting you go was hard! So today I will kiss you not goodbye but until we meet again! # always n forever❤️

“ God saw you getting tired, And a cure was not to be; So he put his arms around you, And whispered, "Come to me". With tearful eyes we watched you, And saw you pass away; Although we loved you dearly, We could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, Hard working hands to rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.

“ Oh my Tio Angelo i never met a man who lived up to their name quite like you did. The love and admiration I have for you is infinite! We miss you we love you and we'll never forget you ! For some of Us nieces and nephews you were the only Father figure... and boy were we lucky! The love and compassion you and Titi showed each other is embedded in me forever.
