

Ann L. Hankins

March 10, 1934 - November 23, 2019

Ann Louise Hankins, known by her countless friends and bounteous family as "Nancy", passed peacefully on November 23, 2019 at the age of 85. Nancy was predeceased by her husband of 28 years, George Robert Hankins, in 1986 as well as her parents Ann & Alfred Powell and her brothers Al, Jack and Tom Powell. She is survived by her 3 sons and 3 daughters: Ann Hankins, George and Maryellen Hankins, Mary Ann and Albert Pettit, Jim Hankins, Francis and Aurora Hankins and Nancy and Renee Hankins-Saltzman. She is also treasured by her 9 grandchildren; Steven, Albert, George, Gail, Victoria, Marie, Opal, Ellis and Harlow and her 5 great grandchildren; Olive, Hollis, Keroll, Kora and Anthony along with her sisters; Maureen, Marilyn and Margie. Nancy was a kind and gentle mother of six, always willing to take in another in need. With a full house and meager means, she fostered several children that had lost their mothers. She was an ace bowler, masterful at scrabble and a great family cook. Nancy was the Court Clerk in Shrewsbury and was politically active with the City Council. One of Nancy's favorite pastimes was playing the penny slots in Atlantic City. May she rest in peace as she returns to God and reunites with her husband and lost loved ones. May she send us pennies from Heaven.

A Funeral service will be held 10:00 AM Wednesday November 27, 2019 at the Bongarzone Funeral Home, 2400 Shafto Road, Tinton Falls. Interment to follow at Mount Olivet Cemetery, Middletown.
