

Anna Marie Pugliese

November 21, 1963 - December 11, 2024

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of our dear Anna Marie Pugliese, who left us on December 11th at the age of 61. Anna was a beloved sister, aunt, and friend, known for her kindness, generosity, and unwavering love for those around her.

Born on November 21st, 1963, in Long Branch, New Jersey, and raised in Eatontown. From an early age, she showed a natural ability to care for others, always putting the needs of her family and friends above her own. As a sister, she was a steadfast companion and confidante, offering support, guidance, and a listening ear in both times of joy and sorrow. As an aunt, she was a constant source of love and affection, never missing an opportunity to share in the lives and milestones of her nieces, nephews, and extended family.

Professionally, Anna enjoyed a successful career in finance, where she made a lasting impact. Her sharp mind, strong work ethic, and keen attention to detail earned her the respect of colleagues and clients alike. In addition to finance, Anna pursued a part time career in real estate where she found further success and developed meaningful relationships with both clients and colleagues

Her warmth and sense of humor touched everyone who knew her. Whether through a heartfelt conversation or a spontaneous gesture of kindness, Anna had a remarkable ability to make others feel seen and valued. She was a woman of deep faith and had a quiet strength that inspired those around her. Anna was passionate about music, film, fashion and most importantly her family. From whom she was never too far. She enjoyed spending summer days at the beach, dinners with family and trips both near and far. Her presence in any room was like a comforting embrace, and her absence leaves a hole in the hearts of all who loved her.

She is survived by her siblings Diana Corcione and her husband David and Thomas Pugliese and his wife Tabitha, her nieces Maryann Corcione, Jean Marie Corcione, Olivia Pugliese and Natalie Pugliese, and her nephews Fiore Corcione, Giacomo Corcione and Giacomo Pugliese. Anna was preceded in death by her father Giacomo Pugliese and mother, Maryann Pugliese.

A private funeral service will be held for the immediate family and friends.

While we mourn her loss, we take comfort in knowing that her love will continue to surround us, and her memory will live on in the hearts of all who were fortunate enough to know her.

Rest in peace, Anna. You will be deeply missed but never forgotten.
