“ Bill and Anna were our wonderful Eatontown neighbors for many years. You could not ask for a kinder, sweeter couple to share your neighborhood with! We have so many memories of the two of them working side by side in their amazing garden- and we were often the grateful recipients of delicious fruit and vegetables from their personal Garden of Eden! Anna’s scrumptious borscht and pierogis were a huge favorite of our family and we always loved spending time with her in the sunroom of her house, where she worked tirelessly on her beautiful traditional Ukrainian cross stitch and other crafts. Knowing Anna was a privilege and a blessing. May she Rest In Peace in God’s grace, reunited at last with Bill and Richie. ❤️
