

Anne P. Caslin

March 24, 1924 - November 13, 2010

Anne P. Caslin (nee Sharkey), age 86, passed away peacefully on Saturday. Born in Urlaur, Co. Mayo, Ireland to George and Winifred Sharkey. After immigrating to the U.S. in 1948 Anne became active in the Mayo Ladies and was Captain of her camogie team. She was a 70+ year member of the Pioneer Total Abstinence Association of the Sacred Heart. Anne met her husband Stephen Caslin at Gaelic Park in the Bronx where they were active in Irish sports and spent many dedicated years in the Co. Roscommon Society and AOH. Anne retired from Abraham & Strauss in 1984 and moved back to Ireland with her husband to her family home in Urlaur Abbey. Anne was predeceased by her husband Stephen. She is survived by her six children: Joanne Wessels of Tinton Falls, Marian Schneider of East Meadow, NY, Steve Caslin of Howell, Una Savoia of Jacksonville, Fl., Brian Caslin of Tinton Falls and Deirdre Rossi of Belle Harbor.

Her sisters Marie Sharkey of Urlaur Abbey and Helen O'Connor of Manchester, NJ and eleven grandchildren: Kimberly, Tara, Gregory, Connor, Stephen, Albert, Blaine, Shawnie, Matthew, Kevin and Joseph.

Burial will take place in Ireland at a later date.

“ We both miss you so much Grandma. We will always remember the times we had and will cherish all those moments. Not a time will pass by when we see a crossword puzzle or Jeopardy is on that we won't think of you. You are such an amazing person and served as a great role model. We love you and will never forget you!
