

Antonino Inghilleri

May 25, 1929 - February 28, 2025

Antonino Inghilleri entered into eternal rest on Friday, February 28, 2025, surrounded by his loving family. Antonino was born on May 25, 1929, in Partinico Sicily, son to Giuseppina and Vito. He immigrated to the United States in 1968 with Margherita, his loving wife of 70 years, and his three daughters. They sought to create a better life for their family.

Antonino was a farmer by trade who had a lifelong passion for gardening. Once he came to the United States he worked as an auto body mechanic. He made many friends throughout his life. Living in the United States brought many new challenges and joy which included the birth of his fourth child, a son that completed his family.

He loved to grow his own fresh produce and beautify his home with vibrant flowers and plants. His greatest pride and devotion was his family. He was happiest at family gatherings and holidays celebrated at their home in Red Bank, NJ where he lived for over five decades. He had a joyful sense of humor and loved to share laughter with all.

He is predeceased by his beloved wife Margherita, his cherished brothers Vito and Rosario, and his daughter Maria Gentile (Ralph). He is survived by his children: Josephine Noden, Benedetta La Rosa (Antonino) and Vito Inghilleri (Lauren). He also leaves behind his grandchildren whom he cared for deeply:

Brian, Sean (Colleen), Kyle, Stephanie, Marie (Christopher), Anthony, Geno, and Sophia, and great grandchildren: Colton and Cael. He will be dearly missed by his family and his memory held fondly.

“ I was so sorry to just hear of your dear father, grandfather, and great-grandfather's passing. Nino and Margherita were cherished neighbors, and I will forever hold fond memories of sitting together with them on their front porch. Of course, I will also miss the fresh figs and tomatoes Nino always shared, as well.

With sincere sympathies,

Lisa McLaughlin
