

Catherine J. Dominici

August 5, 1928 - March 4, 2021

With heavy hearts, we announce the death of Catherine J. Dominici, who passed away on March 4, 2021 at the age of 92.

Catherine was one of five children born to Madeline and Leonard Manco. She was born on her mother's birthday. Growing up she lived in the Ironbound section of Newark, NJ and attended Oliver Street Grammar School and East Side High School. After graduation she worked for Prudential in Newark, and in later years she worked for United Way in Montclair.

Catherine, better known as Kay, met her husband, Andrew (Andy) Dominici, at a dance in Newark in 1952 and they were married for 67 years. They lived on Clifton Ave in the North Ward of Newark for many years where they raised their five daughters, before moving to Edison in the 1980s. For the last 16 years Kay and Andy enjoyed living at Seabrook Retirement Community in Tinton Falls. They made many new friends and participated in activities such as ballroom and line dancing, exercise, Bible study, church services, movies and more.

Kay was a devoted wife to Andy, a wonderful mother to Madelyn (Ward), Jeanne (Tom), Andrea (Roger), Karen (Augie) and Lisa (Robert), and a loving grandmother to 11 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren. She was a loving sister, aunt to many nieces and nephews, and a good friend. She was always kind and supportive. She treasured time with her family, loved dancing with her husband, tea parties with her daughters, socializing with friends and being an active church member.

Kay was blessed with good health and a positive attitude. Everyone uses the same word to describe her--"sweet". Her trademark was blowing kisses.
