“ Although our hearts are broken, we were blessed to have him as our father. He was a true gentleman and a gentle man who loved his family and taught us how to live a good life by his example. We are happy that he did not have to suffer and that he passed peacefully in his sleep.

I remember as a little girl running up the block after dinner to hug him when he got off the bus after a long day of work. He always had a big smile and the best hug!
