“ I will miss my dear mother-in-law. We were all fortunate to be a part of her life. She was always smiling, thoroughly positive and collected. She wanted nothing more than to accommodate others. As I told her on our family video call just days prior to her passing, she was truly inspiring to us all with her confident and comfortable approach to the challenges she faced. She was a beautiful person, an amazing grandmother, and welcoming and warm mother-in-law. I have experienced for over 35 years all that was instilled in my beautiful wife, Barbara, and I know it was you Chris.

“ Chris was a beloved friend and fellow member at Luther Memorial.

I will miss her visits to the church office where we talked about life experiences and the love we had for our children, husbands and families.

I will miss listening to her read stories to our LMC preschool classes on Wednesdays. She was a master story teller and the children were so excited when she would come to read to them. She did not just read the stories, she made them come to life for them, asking questions and their opinions about each tale.

May our Heavenly Father guild and comfort you all. I look forward to being able to honor Chris' life at the memorial service later this year.
