

Clarita F. Almeda

May 22, 1947 - November 2, 2021

Clarita F. Almeda, 74, died peacefully at Monmouth Medical Center in Long Branch, New Jersey surrounded by her loving husband, children and grandchildren.

She was born May 1947 in Angat, Bulacan, Philippines. In 1967, she was Maurillo Almeda's secretary. This was where she was first introduced to Maurillo's son, Arturo Almeda and they later became a couple and eventually they got married in 1969. Later in 1983, the couple moved to Cape May, New Jersey where they raised their family and continued their life happily.

Her memory survives through her husband, Arturo, her devoted son, Albert , and loving daughters, Alma Ng and Aileen Vasquez. She is also living through her adored grandchildren Vanessa Vasquez and Elyssa Vasquez.

Clarita worked at Burdette Tomlin Memorial Hospital and she retired in 2009. She was kind, caring, and selfless. She enjoyed cooking, gardening, listening to music, but most of all she enjoyed spending time at home with her children and grandchildren. She will be greatly missed but forever in our hearts.

Viewing will be held Friday, November 5, 2021 at Bongarzone Funeral Home, 2400 Shafto Road, Tinton Falls, New Jersey from 5:00p-9pm.
