

Diane Deitz

November 26, 1949 - November 25, 2025

Diane Marie Deitz, 75, passed on November 25, 2025. A devoted wife, mother, grandmother, friend, and daughter. She embodied love. As a nurse, she was endlessly compassionate. As a friend, always welcoming. As family, forever caring. There was never a moment in her life that she chose hate and segregation over love and inclusivity.

She is survived by her husband Charles; her four children—Charlie (with fiancée Sarah), Michael (with wife Carla), Daniel (with wife Ashley), and Kaitlin (with husband Michael)—and by her grandchildren: Penelope, Trevor, Ellie, Sam, and Sophia.

Services will be held at Bongarzone Funeral Home in Tinton Falls on Tuesday, December 2, from 2–4 p.m. and 7–9 p.m. A Memorial mass will be held at St. Dorothea's Catholic Church in Eatontown on Wednesday, December 3 at 10:30 a.m., there will be no visitation at funeral home on Wednesday prior to mass. She asks that attendees wear bright, fun colors for visitation, mass and repast.

In lieu of flowers donations in her memory may be made to: Mary's Place by the Sea, 22 Main Avenue, Ocean Grove, NJ 07756.

“ Mike, Dan, Kaity and Charlie this pain and loss of your sweet loving mother will never make sense and you'll be wondering why this beautiful soul. I wish I had answers. Your admiration and love of your mom was always apparent. I always admired that sweetness about you guys. Your memories will help carry you through some of the toughest days. I just wish I got to know Diane a little better ..she raised a beautiful family. I love all of you and if not for the snow I'd be right there holding you all close. Love you Ceil and Steve “ Diane was a wonderful nurse and friend. We went to nursing school together. It was tough but we built a strong bond during those days. We also enjoyed many luncheons with our other classmates in the recent years.

She will be missed but she has earned her wings.

“ I worked With Diane for many many years at Jersey Shore Medical Center. She was a calm,kind, patient person. Who was an excellent nurse. She would come into the NICU to treat our babies. She was very knowledgeable and willing to teach us or answer the parents questions. So sorry for your loss. She will be missed

“ I am sending my deep condolences, prayers and love to the Deitz family. Diane is very much a part of my great memories at AMSN. She was and continued to be the lovely beautiful lady I first met in 1970. I hope Diane's family will find some gentle peace in knowing she rests beautifully well in the Lord's warm arms. God bless you all. ❤️

“ The first picture of Mrs. D is on kaits 21st bday where we peer pressured her into taking her first tequila shot (she wasn't a fan) but she always was a team player. The second is of kaits 40th bday party this year which was in honor of Diane. There's no words to describe this amazing woman her light touched many and will never stop burning.
