

Douglas DeRienzo

September 25, 1965 - July 3, 2025

Douglas DeRienzo was born in New York City on September 25, 1965. His family moved to Summit, New Jersey in 1972. Douglas graduated from Florida State University and lived in Florida and New Orleans for some time.

He later became part of the music community in the Asbury Park area. Douglas was a gifted artist, musician and photographer. His career was in the IT field.

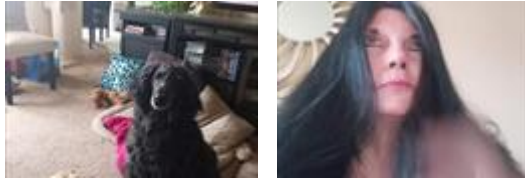

His father, Frank DeRienzo, passed away in October of 2006. He is survived by his mother, Marie DeRienzo, his sister Ariane Elsammak, his brothers David and Daniel DeRienzo, his niece Linnea Elsammak-Bleich and nephew, Alex Elsammak.

We will miss this adventurous and loving son, brother and uncle.

We love you Doug very much.
Lori, Lucy (deceased), Jazz, and our new kid..Lexilu! We miss you sorely! You suffered because I took care of you and I knew..Gone way too young! Damn it!

“ What an enormous loss within the DeRienzo family — my deepest condolences to David, Dan, Ariane, and dear Aunt Marie.

Doug was the life of the party. Always happy to see you, greeting you with that big charming smile he shared with his dad. The memories of childhood and time spent with the cousins are among my favorites of long ago. But what will live on and the legacy left is of a man who was kind to the core — generous of spirit and quick to laugh, multi-talented, humble and with a heart of gold. While we will forever grieve our loss, it is without a doubt the original DeRienzo Brothers greeted you with joy, an open chair in the band and a beautiful new tenor — all tuned up and ready to wail. You rock on in peace, cousin....we'll keep your memory alive here on earth. With love from Nancy, Jerry, Gerry and Maria.

I have a mountain of pics to go through and will find and post what I have of Douglas as soon as possible.*

14 years we were together..and now there is a "hole" in my heart ❤️. Good times and bad..doesn't matter .

I watched this man suffer and tried to help him get his Coffee and cook for him. It's forever in my brain. It's not fair! Too young.

Doug was always so sweet and in good humor everytime I saw him. Just as gentle and warm as he appears in this lovely picture. He was and will always be truly loved.
