“ I don't even know where to start. Growing up next door ... seeing him hanging out in Ritchie Sutton's garage with my dad and whoever else was working on some project to help someone out...the neighbors getting together in our back yards for the summer pig roasts...Ed and his dad Jim knew how to do it just right. His devilish grin, his deep gravelly voice. Gone far too soon. Rest easy Eddie. Sending prayers for comfort and peace to his family. ♡

“ I had the pleasure of working with Ed for several years at New Jersey American Water in Shrewsbury before being reassigned to our Lakewood office. Ed was always a gentleman and was my go to guy when trying to locate or get info on valves or hydrants in the field. His years of experience and knowledge served us well back at the office.

Ed also shared with us his passion for good cooking. From time to time he would share catalogs, magazines and recipes. Like Ed I also love to cook and cherished his advice and knowledge on the art of cooking.

As I will be unable to attend the memorial gathering I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to Ed's family at this difficult time. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

Rest In Peace Ed.

“ Ed was affectionately known as Turkey Man. He made the best deep fried turkeys I have ever tasted. Throw a big Turkey fry up in heaven for all the other angles. Rest easy my friend.

Kermit I was going through my dads pictures and I found the one of all the turkeys hanging in the tree outside the house on the hill on Wayside.
