

Edward J. Kivior Sr.

November 7, 1932 - November 8, 2011

Edward John Kivior Sr., 79, of Tinton Falls, NJ, passed away on Tuesday November 8, 2011 at Riverview Medical Center, Red Bank. He was born and raised in Jersey City, NJ and spent nearly 40 years in Middletown. He most recently resided in Tinton Falls and spent the winter months in Boyton Beach, Florida.

He graduated from St. Michael's High School, Jersey City and Seton Hall University. Edward served honorably in the United States Navy and was a veteran of the Korean War. He retired from the United States Government as a contracting officer. Prior to that, he was the president of Woodland Paper Co. He was a Middletown Republican Committeeman, and past president of the Middletown Lions Club. He was a devoted family man who's passion in his later years were his grandchildren who brought him so much joy.

He is the son of the late Stanley Kivior and Helen Palczewski Kivior. Edward was the beloved husband of 53 loving years to Eileen McBride Kivior. He is also survived by his son Edward Kivior Jr. and his wife Ronda of Glen Allen, VA; his three daughters, Kathleen Bradley of Spring Lake Heights; Jane-Ellen Greenwood and her husband Stephen of Weeki Wachee, FL; Jill Jones and her husband Allen of Monmouth Beach. Edward is also survived by his adoring grandchildren, Stephen and Kristy Greenwood; Keith and Jillian Bradley; Alex, Heidi and Morgan Jones; Claire, Caroline and Devyn Kivior; and great granddaughter Piper Jane Greenwood, born on his birthday.
