“ My heart goes out to all of you,
Ed was a terrific man, he will be missed by everyone. He made an impact on me in many ways and I trully admired his ability to deal with tough situations in a fair and sensible manner.
I already miss his smile and laugh, I am sad to see him go.
He was a very happy man with alot of love, especially for his family.
I could always see that sparkle in his eyes when he talked about Trish or Joe.
I am proud to have known him, as a boss and as a friend.
With much love to all of you,
Bryan Galloway###imported-begin###Bryan Galloway###imported-

“ Trish & Family,

I was very saddened to hear about the passing of your father. I will cherish the memories of us all working @ American Express, and his laugh!!

I know that he had fought for many years following his stroke, but was glad that he got to enjoy his grandchildren.

I know that this is a difficult time, but know that your father is a peace, and will be dearly missed.##imported-begin##Marla Maranca##imported-end##
