

Eileen Keane

September 5, 1956 - December 14, 2017

A beloved mother, wife, daughter, sister, and aunt, Eileen passed away on Thursday with her beloved husband Ken at her side. Eileen lived a happy life, and even after being diagnosed with brain cancer she continued to be a beacon of positivity for those around her. Her mind was set on getting back to school and pursuing her dream of becoming a drug abuse counselor. The life she pursued was one focused on helping others by being kind, compassionate, and supportive of everyone around her.

“ I remember when I met Eileen in Belmar at my summer house. I said she was the most beautiful woman I've meet. Her beauty matched her sense of humor and caring. She proved to be a loving caring Wife and Mother. She was quick to respond to anyone needing help. Our boys were her world. There was nothing she would do for them. She would go anywhere for anyone. Push our boys to limit to success.

She was always within ear shot or a phone call away. She showed our boys to work hard and not only reach for the stars, but to grab one. Eileen will never be forgotten or replaced. Nobody can fill her shoes. She will always be loved and missed. Kenny
