I love you so much and I'm going to miss you very much. I don't know what my life is going to be without you here. You were my rock and strength here on earth. I owe you for making me the woman, the Mother that I am.

“ Such a great guy taken way too soon. I have many funny memories to reflect on but the one that stands out most; just recently being together at Almal's coming home party. You asked "Manda where's the camera" and I had left it at home. How I wish I would have had it on me to capture you smile one last time. You will be forever missed and in our hearts. May God wrap his arms around your family and comfort them. Love you for Life, Remanda Champion##imported-begin##Remanda Champion##imported-end##

“ I was your fifth grade teacher at Lenna Conrow School. You were so much fun and I really enjoyed your humor although you did manage to annoy me every once in a while. Remember when you came to my house to have me fix your bike? Wow, what a great person you were. God will look after you. My prayers are with you.
