“ Dear Alysia, Chrissie and Eric,
I'd love to share a memory or a smile back on Cottage Lane or perhaps Vero Beach Fla. There are so many to choose from! What I truly want to say is that Our Lord has brought another of His Own Home! Even though we will miss her, she is among good company. I'm sure Eartha, Frank and my parents Carl and Mary were waiting at the Gates for her arrival.

Please understand that you guys have been and will remain in my daily prayers for God's peace to envelop all of you!
Deirdre and I will do our best to be over there for Evelyn.

Love,

“ My grandmother loved god, people, life, coffee and all things that sparkled. She taught the importance of love and having faith. She was my hero and while my heart aches for her. I know she's always with me. The sun and the stars will shine brighter with her in heaven because she created light wherever she went -Her loving granddaughter, Miss Peach
