Fernando was born on September 8, 1942, and his life was marked by love, dedication, and an unwavering commitment to his family. He was a pillar of strength and a source of inspiration to all who knew him.

In his younger years, Fernando met the love of his life, Marcia Gongora, and they embarked on a beautiful journey together, sharing a lifetime of love and cherished memories. Their bond was unbreakable, and Fernando's devotion to Marcia was evident in every aspect of their life together.

As a father, Fernando was a guiding light to his two sons, Marcelo Gongora and Manuel Gongora. He instilled in them the values of kindness, hard work, and compassion, shaping them into the fine individuals they are today. Fernando's love and support knew no bounds, and he took immense pride in the men his sons had become.

His role as a grandfather brought unparalleled joy to Fernando's life. He adored his grandchildren, Kerri, Melina, Kacie, and Damien, who brought smiles to his face and warmth to his heart. He treasured every moment spent with them, cherishing their laughter and accomplishments with immense pride.

Fernando's memory will also be cherished by his daughters-in-law, Meredith and Catherine, whom he welcomed into the family with open arms. Their presence enriched his life, and he loved them like his own.

Beyond his family, Fernando touched the lives of many friends and acquaintances. He was known for his warm and welcoming demeanor, always offering a helping hand and a listening ear to those in need.
