

Florence McCue

February 5, 1926 - September 10, 2020

Florence McCue, born to Polish immigrants, was the last of nine children. After graduating high school and before her marriage to William A. McCue in 1953, she worked at the naval base in Bayonne, New Jersey for several years. She later chose to stay home with her four children believing that parenting was the most important job.

After living with her daughter Bonnie and her husband Jim in a mother-daughter apartment in their home for 25 years, she spent her remaining years at Brandywine Assisted Living in Shrewsbury and the Manor By the Sea Nursing Home in Ocean Grove. Many of her days were filled with ease and laughter. She was well loved by the staff in both places. She loved songs of the 40's, both listening and singing along, as she knew many of the lyrics. She was an avid reader and enjoyed books on a wide range of subjects, especially books about animals and biographies.

She is predeceased by her husband William A. McCue, two daughters; Bonnie Bastan and Eileen Keane. Surviving are her daughter Kathleen (husband Al), son William (wife Denise), sons-in-law James Bastan and Kenneth Keane, seven grandchildren: Rebekah Sheldon, Bill Bastan, Marshall Sheldon, Sean Keane, Lauren McCue, William McCue, Jr., Connor Keane, and many nephews and nieces.

“ Florence McCue, an Angel who God sent from heaven was a sweet, selfless person with a great sense of humor, never said a bad word about anyone, loved and supported her family unconditionally. She is now at peace, an Angel in heaven with her beloved husband and daughters, Bonnie & Eileen.

I am forever grateful to have had her in my life, my beautiful mother-in law and the greatest grandma to my kids! I have so many great memories of her patience and sense of humor..... she was always helping Bill and I , she watched my kids while we worked, she encouraged them to be creative and they performed plays for us when we got home . My fondest memory is when we spent quality one on one time , shopping, having lunch and this one occasion where we went to upstate NY to see my nephew and her grandson Marshall perform in a play, we laughed so much our bellies hurt.... Florence you will be forever in my heart!! 🥺💔🙏🙏
