“ "As long as we can love each other, and remember the feeling of love we had, we can die without ever really going away. All the love you created is still there. All the memories are still there. You live on—in the hearts of everyone you have touched and nurtured while you were here." - Morrie Schwartz

I will always cherish the stories Gram shared, the love she had for her family and how she always thought of those she loved. You will be missed, Gram, but we will always keep your memory alive and you close in our hearts.

“ Your Mother is always with you. She’s the whisper of the leaves as you walk down the street, she’s the smell of certain foods you remember, flowers you pick, the fragrance of life itself. She’s the cool hand on your brow when you’re not feeling well, she’s your breath in the air on a cold winter’s day. She is the sound of the rain that lulls you to sleep, the colors of a rainbow, she is Christmas morning. Your mother lives inside your laughter. She’s the place you came from, your first home, and she’s the map you follow with every step you take. She’s your first love, your first friend, even your first enemy, but nothing on earth can separate you. Not time, not space, not even death.

Mommy, even though I am now a grown woman with a husband and a beautiful daughter, I will miss everything about you every single day for the rest of my life. You were my life. I will love you forever and one day more.
