“ Sincerest condolences for the loss of your dear brother George. Although we had the short time of and honor of knowing such a wonderful dear person. We so much enjoyed his wonderful smile love of music. He has been a wonderful friend to my father Rodney King at the Atrium. Our lives have been touched and blessed with having George and John as friends. The "Brothers" are forever in our hearts. My daughter would very much love to sing the Ave' Maria for George and Family at the Catholic Church where they went to Mass every Sunday. Luciana would like to sing for George one last time.
