

Gladys LaFontant

September 29, 1940 - July 24, 2025

Gladys LaFontant, 84, of Tinton Falls, passed away on July 24, 2025. She was born in Port-au-Prince, Haiti on September 29, 1940. Gladys' love for dancing brought joy not only to her own life but to those lucky enough to witness it.

Each evening at 6 p.m., you could count on Gladys tuning in to Cousin Bruce – a daily tradition that brought comfort and a sense of calm after each day. Sunday mornings were sacred.

Gladys found peace and strength in Charles Stanley's Morning Prayer, never missing a message and often sharing words of wisdom.

She is survived by her loving children, Ronald Gabeau and Cynthia Miranda, who stood faithfully by her side during her final moments. Lynn is also among her survivors. Her legacy continues through her cherished grandchildren, Nioami and Nurell Miranda, and Marcus and Raymond Gabeau, each of whom brought joy and light into her life. Their shared memories will forever hold a special place in their hearts. She is also survived by her two dear sisters, Yolande and Marie (Dada), who lovingly called her "Doudune."
