“ I have wonderful memories of Grace. I met Grace at a secretarial organization and became fast friends. We ultimately got our associate degree at Brookdale College and even made the newspapers for our determination to get our degree while working and raising children. We also made time to get together every Christmas to see a show with our husbands. I will always remember Grace and wish her well now that she has joined her soul mate in Heaven.

“ MENLO PARK TERRACE: 2 AND 6 Jefferson Street
Two Families- One Heart-Floods of Memories Dance through my thoughts ...all starting in April of 1958 !!!
Grace took me to see my first movie with Elaine..Sleeping Beauty. I also had my first sugar cone thanks to" Mrs. Fedorcsak". And listening to my Mom and Grace talk was always intriguing for me. Always a smile, always a delight to talk with; Grace became all of the Mack's special friend.
I always told her she looked like Loretta Young, Grace would smile and laugh...a beautiful wonderful person. My Mom's best friend, they shared a great friendship. Joe has peace now that his Earth Angel is flying with him! Love and Prayers to all the Family.

“ Never did I dream when my family moved to Menlo Park terrace from Newark that we would be lifelong friends with our new neighbors Joe, Grace, Elaine and David. Each in their own ways touched our lives. Grace gave me my first babysitting job. Toddler David called me Ma-moo and this is how I continued to referred to myself with Grace. She was my mom's best friend and I loved to hear all her great stories of the fun times the couples had together at house parties or travelling. She was a light, joyful wonderful woman. I know, because she loved Jesus as her Lord and Savior, that she is in Heaven seeing Joe. I am so thankful to have known this very lovely friend.
