“ Linda, Jack & I have so many memories of you & Buddy. Remember, Buddy was at one time Jack's boss & you all worked together. Fortunately, that relationship developed into a long friendship. We had so much fun together following our greyhounds, dinners out, Superbowls and, of course, New Year's Eve at Christies. Buddy still lives in our memories and will never be forgotten.

“ Linda I'm very sorry to learn of Buddy's passing. I'll never forget the travel to the first Super Bowl in Pasadena when we had the snowstorm the night we were supposed to leave. I have many fond memories of travel to with Buddy and you.

“ Well, Uncle Buddy you will be miss, you were a great cook and great Uncle. I'll remember Christmas that you and Aunt Linda played black magic you always had us guessing and laughing. Mom is happy you joining her and Uncle Norman you will know all the winners for the racing and games. You were a great man and you will be miss ❤️

“ Linda and family words can't express the sorrow I feel for you but we can look back on the years with joy of all the times we spent with our love ones that are no longer here and the fun and laughs and sorrows and to say that I'm missing those Wednesday nights together. Love and may God help you in the coming days Cathie
