

Helen M. Mulvihill

May 24, 1928 - October 12, 2012

Helen Margaret Mulvihill (nee McManus), 84, passed away peacefully in her sleep early Friday morning. She was born in W. New York, NJ. She lived in North Bergen for many years before relocating to Red Bank, NJ. She is survived by her children: Barbara Fahey and her husband Tom, Cate Mulvihill, and Marianne Galvin and her husband Ken; five grandchildren Thomas, Sheryl, Colleen, Clare, Bryan, one great granddaughter Sidney, brother James McManus and wife Cathy and sister-in law Patricia McManus. She is predeceased by her brother Leonard, husband Frank and her granddaughters Eileen Grace McGlory and Kati Fahey Moody. Throughout her life she consistently prioritized those close to her; creating a family full of strength, warmth, and laughter. Relatives and friends may pay their respects on Monday at Bongarzone Funeral Home Tinton Falls from 2-4 and 7-9. Funeral mass on Tuesday at 10:30am in St. Anthony's Red Bank followed with burial at Brg General William C Doyle Veterans Cemetery. In lieu of flowers the family is suggesting donations in her name to Memorial Sloan Kettering and Lunch Break of Red Bank.

“ Aunt Helen was the best, she raised three strong, independent and wonderful daughters who will never be the same without her, but always be better because of her. Anyone who came in contact with my aunt knows of the depth of her love and her passion for life. I never will forget all the times and memories we had at Kamp Place and all the times she would tell us stories about our dad, her brother, Jim when he was young, and not quite as perfect as he is now!!! Love and best wishes to you all back in New Jersey, we now have a special angel looking down on us all from above, a very bossy and opinionated angel, but after all she is a McManus. Love from Chris and Missy McManus and the whole family in Tucson, wish we could be there to celebrate her life with you.
