“ Irene was my neighbor and friend for many years. She loved to do gardening and spent many hours outside in the nice weather putting around the gardens. I remember when she was able, she would even cut the immense lawn on her little tractor mower. She and Jimmy took many nice trips in their younger years together, and played golf as well. Irene and Jimmy enjoyed visits from her sister from Germany each summer, and Irene and she would shop and shop together. An animal lover, Irene had cute dogs and cats over the years. Their surviving cat Buster misses them, and he will live with family. Irene and her sister lived through the bombing of Dresden, Germany as teenagers during WWII, and her stories of that time were heartbreaking to say the least. She was grateful to live in the United States later in life, but never forgot her roots and the horrors of that time. We shared many laughs together, as she never lost her sense of humor. I will miss you dear friend, and pray you have been reunited with Jimmy and your sister in eternity. God bless you always. Carol
