“ I've met Irene a few times when I visited my cousin Lois Dilworth down on the Jersey Shore. Irene was good friends with Lois and Winnie Walsh. I also enjoyed Irene when I was with her. I first met her at Lois' sister's house in Spring Lake at a party where a good time was had; that was in the early 1990s. I'm sorry for the loss of your mother, she was a fun person to be with and I will miss not having the chance to get together with her again.

“ *My condolences to the family.
I met Irene many years ago. She was a friend of my sister in Spring Lake. Over the years we became good friends spending many happy hours laughing and chatting away. She was vivacious, intelligent, generous and always lots of fun to be with. She had a deep spiritual commitment with strong fortitude when faced with life's challenges. I truly admired her strength and patience--- even when she became ill.
She deeply loved her children and always raved about how wonderful they were ( which they are ). She was a really unique person and shall be missed.*
