“ Jackie was a woman with a passion for life, her family, taking care of others and never saying "no" to attempting any new venture. She was truly courageous and remarkable in her battle. I can not believe that she is no longer here. I have truly learned alot about living from Jackie and will miss her very much.
All my best to Frank and her her family and friends

“ Dear Frank, Diane, Daryl
I am very saddened to hear of the passing of your loved one. She will allways be remembered by me as a beautiful, courageous, kind and loving person. She left me with so many wonderful memories of the places she took her Red Hats to.
Rest In Peace , my dearfriend
