“ Dear Marie and family,
I was very sad to hear of your mother's passing. I remember her fondly growing up on Sandra Lane. She always had a voice that reminded me of singing, especially when she was calling for you from the front porch. I remember her many talents, especially playing the piano and sewing anything imaginable at amazing speeds. I also remember how kind and good natured she was, especially when our dog Ringo got loose and ran through your house, knocking her off her feet and breaking her glasses. Boy, she was a good sport about that! She must have had a soft spot for that crazy dog. Or maybe she figured all that howling Wally did, made us even! LOL
My most sincere condolences to you and your family.
