Jimmy was born in Red Bank, NJ to John Mazza and Concetta Inghilleri Mazza on November 6, 1941. He was a graduate of Red Bank High School, and went on to become a licensed barber before starting a 33-year career as a service technician for Sears & Roebuck. He was a well-liked and respected technician due to his wealth of knowledge, coupled with his humble, fun-loving way with people. He served 6 years in the US National Guard from 1963-1969. He married Angela Iorfida in 1964, and celebrated 57 wonderful years of marriage just a few days before his passing. Jimmy was a well-known barber at Cardner's Barber Shop in Red Bank, working on Saturdays from the 1980's well into the 2000's. Anybody who sat in his chair was welcomed with a kind smile, easy conversation, and a contagious laugh. He could be seen driving to and from the shop in his 1968 Chevy El Camino, which is still parked in his garage today. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, brother-in-law, father-in-law, friend, co-worker and parishioner. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus Red Bank Council, once serving as Grand Knight for his chapter. He was also an active parishioner of the Church of Saint Anselm in Tinton Falls, NJ. Jimmy is survived by his wife Angela Mazza, son John Mazza, daughter Connie Schneider, and son Vinnie Mazza; Son-in-law Ed Schneider and daughter-in-law Katy Mazza; Grandsons Christopher Schneider and Nicholas Schneider; Granddaughters Gray Mazza and Isla “ Jimmy was the brother I never had. I lost a good friend, someone who would drop everything to come over and fix what needed fixing. The best Godfather I could have had for my youngest son Nicholas. He was the nicest man you will ever meet and missed by all. My boys loved their regular haircutting sessions with you . The Benincasa clan will miss you so much!
