“ Jerry, I don't what to say. I'm at a loss for words. I will miss you terribly. I can't believe you're gone. Our hearts and prayers pour out to Carol, Michael and Michelle. My memories of you and the special times we had..., growing up with you Uncle Jerry will never be forgotten. You were always so special in my heart. I'm sorry I didn't make more of an effort to visit you more often. However, I know you are in a better place now. Can't wait to see you again someday in heaven. Keep makin the angels laugh, I know you will! Until we meet again Uncle.....##imported-begin##Chris Anfuso & Family##imported-end##

“ Dear Carol, Michael and Michele,
I am terribly saddened by Jerry's death. Still I know that it cannot compare with the loss you are all experiencing. He was a very kind and considerate nephew, always calling me on holidays reminding me that I'm thought of and loved.
The last time I saw him was three years ago at his cousin Heather's graduation. It was a day I will always remember because, I was able to see you all so happy and joyful. That's the way I wish to remember Jerry, joyful and happy being with his family and those he loved.
Now is the time for tears and pain, and God's love will help you endure this suffering. I pray that the day will come for you to find joy in the beautiful memories of him. That is how I have been able to survive all these years without John. In time sorrow turns to joy and the reality that his is still alive and always with me in my heart and my tender loving memories. I will carry you all in my heart and prayers. Love, Aunt Irene##imported-begin##Irene Lubina##imported-end##

“ Dear Carol, Michael & Michele,

Our hearts go out to you in your time of sorrow. You are in our prayers.

Jerry was our wonderful "big" cousin, the eldest, the prince. When he walked into a family function, he lit up the room with his smile, hugs, kisses and sweet words for everyone. He will be missed by all who had the honor of knowing him, and, if you knew him, you loved him.

A bright light has gone out in our family.##imported-begin##Rosanne and Heather Barr##imported-end##
