“ Cathy Walton and I (Brian Lamm) knew Joan for many years through our weekly bridge group. She was truly a very special person and always enjoyable to be with. It was clear over the years that Joan cared deeply about helping others. It sounds like the years after she moved to NJ brought Joan a great deal of happiness and we were glad to learn that. Our condolences for your loss, but we are glad you shared a long and wonderful life with such an exceptional person. Brian Lamm and Cathy Walton

Joan lived at The Barkley in Arlington, VA for many years. As one of her neighbors, I saw first hand what a talented hostess and generous friend she was. Active in the bridge group, book group, & social committee, Joan was always a cheerful contributor. She was missed when she left for NJ. While preparing for her move she offered me some pretty, embroidered pillowcases which I see daily & make me think of her. Ralph & I offer our sincere condolences.
