“ Dear Bill and Christine and Sally and All Family and Friends,

Please accept our deepest condolences with heavy hearts as this is a most difficult farewell. JoanMary was one of a kind for certain and always remember that she loved each of you just as you are.

*God bless all of you,
Karen, Kimberly and Diana Macaluso*

Dear JoanMary.

Thank you, dear friend, for being exactly as you were! We are so grateful for each blessed moment we had with you. We shared many times over the years. Our favorite memories are when you laughed - as it was with your whole heart and almost always lasted until tears of joy rolled down your cheeks. Your faith, honesty, kindness and gracious love will be sorely missed, as will your warm hugs. Your example will live on in our hearts. It's your turn to rest peacefully, JoanMary in Heaven to join those who are there waiting for your beautiful and precious soul.

P.S. Let's Go Mets!

“I have always considered myself a blessed person for being able to say that both JoanMary and Bill were my friends. There were many times that JoanMary and I would go to a Met game to support our team. She would share her time and wisdom with me, always showing concern and true friendship. Bill, know that you will remain in my thoughts and prayers. A donation to St. Jude Research Hospital will be placed in her memory.”

“ Mother's maiden name was Tenzycki. When I was small, I idolized her. She would sometimes sing me to sleep. When Bill was in the army, and could not come home, I would spend the weekend with her watching Twilight Zone and pigging out on snacks. I will miss her more than you could imagine
