“ To my dearest husband and best friend, God gave us many journeys but we always managed to survive with his help. We did everything together. We were inseparable. I watched you fight many years with diabetes, and congestive heart failure. This past year it took a toll on you. You fought so hard to stay alive to be with us but Jesus had a different plan for you. So on May 8th 2013, I lost my loving husband and best friend .I miss you and love you very much even the 20 calls a day. I wish I could have one more call from you to hear your voice. Someday we will be together again. You no longer are suffering and you are in a beautiful peaceful place. Rest in peace my love. Always in my heart your loving wife Sue
