“ To joe's family... I am so sorry for this tragic loss. I'm praying that you receive comfort in knowing his internal struggles and pain are now at rest. I met Joe in Florida and every time we talked it was always about our families in NJ. He loved you all so much. From all of us from the Recovery Place, please know Joe will not be forgotten. <3 again I am so sorry for your loss.

“ Rest in peace my handsome nephew, whose smile could light up a room. Funny, lovable, intelligent. You will be deeply missed by everyone. Our lives will be forever changed with your passing but we know God has taken you home. Until we meet again we love you Joe forever in our hearts and that exasperating smile embedded in our souls. Always,

“ Beth and Family:

I am so sorry to hear about the death of Joseph. I know there are no words that I can say to ease your pain. All I can do is assure you of my prayers. I was at a meeting at our parish last night and we prayed for you and Joseph. Father Lou (at my church) promised to pray as well.

Please let me know if you need anything or just want to talk.

My deepest condolences in your loss. May our Lord grant you peace and comfort.

There are no words to ease the pain in your heart, Beth. But may the knowledge that Our Lord is truly cradling your beautiful son in His loving arms help give you some strength. Your friends are here for you and I hope that somehow you feel our collective love. My thoughts and prayers are with you, Beth.
