

Joseph F Leone

February 18, 1964 - October 4, 2018

Joseph F. Leone, 54, of Tinton Falls, NJ passed away on Thursday October 4, 2018 at Riverview Medical Center, Red Bank. Joe was born and raised in Elizabeth, NJ, before moving to Cliffwood Beach where he married and then settled in Tinton Falls. His second home in Chincoteague Island was his retirement destination.

Joe was an Associate Principal Scientist, Department of Process Research & Development at Merck & Co. for 30 years. He was highly regarded by his co-workers and management and was the goto guy. Joe was a proud member of the Advisory Council for Biology, Chemistry and Physics Department at Monmouth University. Joe was also a graduate of the New York Restaurant School as cooking was his passion and he was damn good at it!! Thank you, Joe, for all the good eats.

Joe is survived by his wife of 23 years Suzie, his furry friends; AJ, Toby and Kocoa, his sisters; Lori Pulley, Janet Leone-McCarthy and Judy Leone. He is also survived by numerous nieces and nephews on both sides as well as two great-nieces and a great-nephew.

Love in your heart wasn't put there to stay.

Love isn't love till you give it away

Joe gave it all away, to family, friends, his career, his kitchen and his second home in Chincoteague Island.

We are all richer from Joe's love.

MERRY CHRISTMAS UP IN HEAVEN JOE! So many gifts to wrap, SO many Christmas cards to send and receive this year! At 59 years old I got OVERWHELMED!!! Turkey out of the oven,dinner ate, all guests gone now.....FINALLY.....the day is OVER!!! Sitting on the couch about 10 minutes ago and I forgot ONE last thing. So, I went and got my old 'laptop' and sent you THIS message.....always thinking about MY BOY from so long ago.....still 'love you,man'...

Happy Birthday up in Heaven Joe! My Mom's was February 6th. She turned 80 in Somerset Hospital with the flu. I bought her up flowers, scratch-offs and all of her birthday cards that her friends mailed to her. She came home the next day. Our Yankees crapped out in the playoffs last year, oh well. That's about it.....just wanted you to know that I was thinking about you today.....

Janet, I started to write Joe's memorial today but it is EPIC. I was working on it for almost a half hour and then I couldn't type any more. By that I mean that this web page has a limit to how many words you can write and then it stops. But I have worked too long and thought too hard to let it go. When I get access to my home computer I will type it all out, print it and get it to you somehow....so sorry, for now. Vinnie

“ To the "Leone Family" so sorry to hear of your loss. While I never met Joe, I have always thought about him and all the other cousins I lost contact with as I grew up.

Reading all the beautiful tributes, he is a man I would have loved to know. His love of animals warms me greatly, plus his cooking skills.

He shares his name with at least 3 other strong men of the family. Great Great Grandfather -Giuseppe Leone 1817, Grandfather -Joseph(Giuseppe) Leone 1884, and my Father -Joseph A. Leone 1916. All now together for eternity-wonder who's cooking!

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I hired into Merck in July 2003 (first job out of college) and Joe was my scientific supervisor. I worked under him nearly 6 years and have nothing but great things to say about him. I learned so much from him over those years and he would tell me about stories growing up and just kept everyone in the lab laughing. His holiday parties are stuff of legend and his cooking skills were second to none. Even after I left Merck we would stay in touch through email a few times a year. I send my sincerest condolences to everyone. I will unfortunately be out of town on the day of his service but I will say a special prayer and think of him and you all that day.

“ Joe was one of the sweetest, kindest, biggest hearted people i ever had the pleasure of knowing. He always had a big smile on his face, never once did i see him angry! One memory i have in particular was when a bunch of us went to a concert in brooklyn, after a night of drinking and partying, I went home and noticed i was locked out of my house, so as i am climbing thru my bedroom window, someone grabs me by my ankles, scaring the crap out of me, so as i turn around to see who it was, joe pops his head up into my window, laughing like crazy but nearly giving me a heart attack! Turned out, he was locked out as well! So i pulled him in my window and set him up with pillows and blankets. Rest in peace my friend! Love and miss you always!

Am very deeply troubled by this loss! I had known him for 20y at Merck. An excellent chemist at scale up efforts lab headed by Dr. Phil Escola. Two incidences that involved Joe comes to my mind. One, to this day I remember his comment when he said, Shankar, your procedure worked as you claimed it would! Joe, then was involved in mimicking and scaling up an intermediate for drug discovery efforts at Merck. His comments to me coming from someone with years of experience, meant lot to me. Second incidence-during the super ball times Joe was officially the bookie and would be in charge of handling large amount of cash. When the Giants of NY won the super ball (2005 or 2006?), I hit a jackpot to the tune of about $500.00 ! The next day, Joe walked into my lab and handed over the envelope! That smile on his face and that collective laugh we both shared is still fresh in my mind! Joe, you are gone too young buddy! RIP.

“ My dear little brother Joe. So many good times, the cooking, the eating, the cooking, the drinking.....never had a bad time with you. When you were born, I was so happy to have a brother and play with boy toys. For so many years you were my "playmate". Every park and playground I took you too gave me gave me chance to be a child too. I was never happier than when you bought the "goobie" house across the street from me. Mommy was so happy, she said I could look after you, take care of you. Haha. You have given me a lifteime of memories that I will always have. You will forever be in my heart. Love you more than I have words. Your "big" sister, Lori
