

Joseph M. Rubbinaccio

December 21, 2014

Joseph M. Rubbinaccio, 80, of Tinton Falls, NJ, passed away on Sunday, December 21st 2014. Joe was born in Hoboken, NJ where he grew up before moving to Tinton Falls in 1994. Joe graduated from Demarast High School and was recruited for a basketball scholarship for Villanova University. He was an avid athlete and a sports fan his entire life and was inducted into the Hoboken Hall of Fame in 1999.

After leaving Villanova to transfer to Arizona State University, Joe moved back to Hoboken and married his high school sweetheart Sabina DeCandia in July 6th, 1957. For the next 35 years, Joe worked for Maxwell House where he retired from.

Joe was a beloved father and grandfather and an amazing and loving friend to all of those lucky to keep his company. He will be missed dearly.

Joe is survived by his wife Sabina DeCandia Rubbinaccio, daughter Debra Rose Rubbinaccio Altomare and her husband Dominick, daughter Dana Rubbinaccio Pak and husband Chris (Song), and five grandchildren: Darian Leigh Altomare, Joelle Rae Altomare, Carly Reid Altomare, Cameron Joseph Pak and Kyle Christopher Pak. He is also survived by a sister Florence Rubbinaccio Spagnoli and her husband Dominick (Benny).

Visitations will be from 2-8 pm, Tuesday, December 23rd, 2014 at the Bongarzone Funeral Home, 2400 Shafto Road, Tinton Falls. In lieu of flowers the family requests that you donate to the Wounded Warrior project in his name.

“ i know i am way too late for this tribute, but Joe was so special. I met him on a tennis court in Secaucus, he mentored me at the Hoboken Maxwell House Plant. He was savvy and smart. I did get to visit with him and Sabina in Chicago. He had a great family and I am sure he is still missed by many. Tom DiDonato
