“ Jan and I were very sad to hear of Joe's passing, though his long illness is over and he is at peace and with God.

I worked over 20 years in the financial group of Stone & Webster in Boston and Joe was the consummate professional and a good friend. I have many memories of Joe of those years, but will never forget the time that Joe and I played for the tennis cup at one of our summer financial meetings. The other team wanted to play best of 5 sets and they won the first two sets. Joe and I won the next three sets and we finished around midnight, totally exhausted, and covered in red dust from the indoor tennis surface. Joe said that was the last time he would play tennis and I think that was true.

I will always think of Joe when remembering my days at the Company.

Our deepest sympathy to Mary Ellen and the family.

“ My brother, although your pain and hurt are probaly overwhelming at this time, just take peace in knowing that your dad is no longer suffering. He suffered for so long and was so courageous in his long fight, which he fought not so much for him, but for his great love for the family. He is now watching over you all, and just tell James and Caroline they have another angel watching over them!!

We Love You##imported-begin##GLF##imported-end##
